GC Pilot, Passenger Killed In Crash

Plane of K. M. Cothern
Strikes Power Lines
At State Park Place

A Granite City aircraft salesman-pilot and a passenger were killed when his Cessna 182 Skylane airplane struck power lines and crashed at 6:35 p.m. Tuesday in State Park Place.

Dead are Kenneth Melvin Cothern, 49, of 2900 Sunset drive, the pilot, and Mrs. Fern Imogene McConnell, 39, of 8605 Sterling avenue, Caseyville.

An investigation yesterday by Civil Aeronautics Administration officials resulted in a verdict of pilot error in connection with the accident.

According to Deputy Coroner Alvin Coates of Granite City, the inquiry disclosed that a pin securing the flaps mechanism, positioned by the pilot on the aircraft prior to Tuesday's windstorm as a safety measure, "had not been removed before take-off."

Cease said the pilot probably did not realize the flaps were still secured until he attempted to lift the plane from the lighted runway. The aircraft struck the power lines approximately 500 feet from the end of the runway, crashing into the trees around 300 feet from the initial area of impact.

The deputy coroner, who had known Mr. Cothern for several years, said the pilot was considered a "fine flyer, and could fly any type of aircraft made."

The CAA inquiry reveals the plane was enroute to Bi-State Airport south of East St. Louis, a scant ten-minute plane ride from the Collinsville road airport.

Both inquests will be conducted here by the deputy coroner.

State police said the four-seater plane had just taken off from the Collinsville road airport, 8300 Collinsville road, which Mr. Cothern formerly operated.

Downtown G.C. Halloween Parade--7 P.M. Tuesday

Gaily-dressed Halloween masqueraders, both young and old, will once again have an opportunity to compete for cash awards when the traditional Halloween parade through downtown Granite City gets under way at 7 p.m. next Tuesday.

Cosponsored by Granite City Lodge 272, Loyal Order of Moose, and the Associated Retailers and Civic Association, the annual event is expected to attract its usual bevy of hobgoblins, witches, spooks, together with a colorful assortment of other seasonal paraders.

George W. Lipscomb, Moose Lodge governor, today announced the parade will form at the city hall and will proceed east on Niedringhaus avenue to State street, south on State to 19th street, west on 19th street to Niedringhaus avenue, then east on Niedringhaus back to the city hall, where masqueraders will pass in review for the judges.

Those entered in the parade will be eligible for cash awards in three categories: best dressed, most comical and most original. Lipscomb said, adding that first, second and third place prizes will be given in each division of competition.

Members of Women of the Moose, Chapter 247, will assist the lodge members during the parade, Gov. Lipscomb said. He reminded parents of youthful trick-or-treaters to make certain their children can see and be seen while Halloweening.

Those marching in parade will experience no difficulty as traffic is halted and a careful eye is kept on the younger children, the Moose official said. However, children trick or treating in darkened neighborhood areas or walking to and from the downtown parade should be instructed to remove their masks while crossing streets so their vision will not be obstructed, he added.

Daylight Time
Will End Sunday

The hour that everyone lost last April when daylight saving time became effective will be regained this weekend when use of standard time is resumed.

Some persons may set their clocks back an hour before retiring Saturday night, or when they rise Sunday morning, but officially 2 a.m. Sunday marks the end of daylight saving time for 1967.

Daylight time becomes effective on the last Sunday in April, and remains in use throughout Illinois and the Missouri area until the last Sunday of October.

UF Pledges Total $265,389; Now 69% of $384,000 Goal

Teachers and other personnel of the Granite City school district and employees of the Nestle Co. shared top honors at yesterday's United Fund campaign report session. Drive Chairman Mitchell B. Milonski announced pledges now total $265,389, or 69.1% of the $384,000 goal.

At next Wednesday's fourth report session, Milonski is calling for the 90% mark to be hit.

Robert John Johnson, son of Teachers Federation 743 was unable to be present for the third report session.

A second election on forming a junior college district will be held in 1968, possibly in March, County School Supt. Wilbur R. L. Trimpe told Madison Rotary yesterday in urging public support.

While he plans to step down as steering committee chairman, he will call a meeting in November to initiate a new cycle of petitions, hearings and other election preparations, including setting of boundaries.

Trimpe said. A proposed junior college district including Madison county was rejected by voters April 1.

The speaker urged Mayor Stephen Maeras and Club President Harvey Miller to form committees to aid in studies and planning.

He said many who voted negatively or failed to vote in April now favor the proposal, adding that a recent law change would be located to encourage a larger turnout. Trimpe warned there are reports that East St. Louis junior college planners may include part of the territory listed in the eight-county, but would exclude it from consideration by another proposed district until the first election is decided.

Supt. Trimpe described a two-year junior college as inevitable and said Madison county already is years behind many counties. He said the St. Louis

Council to Open
Sewer Bond Bids
At Nov. 15 Meet

Bids for the sale of a 39-year, $150,000 revenue bond issue to finance installation of sanitary sewers in several sections of the city will be opened at a special 8 p.m. meeting of the Granite City council on Nov. 15.

Authorization for the bid call was given during Monday night's council meeting, when it was announced that construction bids for the project would be received by Nov. 16.

While protests were raised over the 39-year span of the bond issue, the bond sale bid call ordinance was approved by a vote of 8-0-4, following an 11-0-2 vote for suspension of rules for immediate adoption.

Shorter Period Possible

Bond Atty. Rorace Calvo explained that the payment period could be shortened whenever funds became available. Most aldermen felt that with the $2.50 monthly charge for 150 residences involved, the bond payments would continue for at least 30 years or more. The sanitary sewers are to be installed to serve North Industrial "Firms Division, headed by Paul Kemp, 66.7%, bid $2,081 of the $140,000 goal; Public Services Division, headed by Coe, 66.6%, with $11,962 of the $18,000 goal.

Madison Division headed by Mayor Maeras, 50.2%, with $4616 of the $9000 goal; Residential and Rural Division, headed by William Hoeler, 49.1%, with $1227 of a $2500 goal, and Commercial Division, headed by Barry Loman, 34.9%, with $11,882 of a $34,000 goal.

Milonski called a meeting of all division leaders for 11:45 a.m. Monday to review campaign progress.

WINDS, RAIN LASH AREA -- Damage is Slight

Winds of torrid force caused scattered damage in several surrounding communities as a cold front moved through the Hartford-Wood River area, St. Louis county and Belleville. However, the Quad-Cities escaped the full force of the storm which had winds up to 86 miles an hour.

Granite City's network of warning sirens was activated at 11:40 a.m., and local residents watched the dark, swirling clouds and rising winds with concern.

Precautions were taken in local schools with most grade school pupils going into corridors.

One grade school principal commented the youngsters "behaved very well," noting that in that particular school only one small group showed any sign of alarm.

With the warning coming during lunch hour, our worst problem was answering the telephone and advising parents whether or not to send the children back to school," the principal said.

During the height of the storm not too many people were observed on downtown streets. Those who continued to shop appeared casual and undisturbed. Some shoppers remained inside business premises waiting for the rain to end.

57-inch of Rain Here

Rain started about 12:10 p.m. with a total of 57 inch recorded. The temperature dropped 20 degrees to 46 in less than an hour. Tree limbs, debris and garbage cans littered streets and alleys, but were later cleaned up by street department personnel.

A funnel cloud was sighted in Hartford at 12:40 p.m. It blew out windows in the Hartford grade school, but no children were reported hurt. Electric power lines and poles were downed in various spots in the Wood River-Hartford area.

Damage was done to a warehouse in Wood River, and a concrete block building near the Wood River police station was damaged when the side was caved in. Several homes also were damaged, and trailer homes overturned.

Glenwood Corey, a member of the Granite City civil defense communications division, manned the emergency radio transmitters in CD headquarters during the storm, CD Director Victor Koenig reported. Koenig was in constant touch with the Granite City police department in the event emergency assistance was required.

The siren at Ash and Glen avenues failed to activate, the CD chief said, and was repaired by electric company employees yesterday.

Ice Rink Ready For Tomorrow's First Skaters

All's Well in Miles
Of Refrigerant Pipes

A sigh of relief was audible as testing of the miles of refrigeration lines in Granite City's new ice skating rink was completed for tomorrow's opening.

Ted Meeker, who "makes the ice" for the St. Louis Arena, was here to lend a hand and was the one with a sigh.

"You never know," he explained, "if a mouse might have crawled in one of those pipes while they were being assembled, and that would clog up everything. All looks okay here, however."

That long-awaited moment when the first skaters glide onto the ice of Granite City's new $500,000 skating rink at Wilson Park is scheduled at 9 a.m. tomorrow.

It should be a gala event. Quad-City area youngsters have no school tomorrow because of a teachers' meeting, a factor that was considered by park officials in setting the opening. It also is possible a substantial crowd for the rink inauguration.

Once skating gets under way at 9 a.m., it will continue until 10:30 p.m., with exception of a one-hour gap between 11:30 a.m. and 12:30 p.m.

Park Supt. Harold Brown said tomorrow's skating sessions will follow the usual Saturday schedule, except that there will be no free instruction classes during the opening weekend. It also is possible that instruction classes may have to be eliminated from the regular next week's schedule starting Monday, although further announcements will be made of these plans.

Consequently, skaters may attend sessions tomorrow starting at 9 a.m. and lasting until 11:30 a.m.; at 12:30 p.m. until 3 p.m.; 3 to 5:30 p.m.; 5:30 to 8 p.m., and 8 to 10:30 p.m. These Friday hours will apply only this week, however. The regular daily schedule for Monday through Friday provides a 3 p.m. rink opening, since school is in session on week days.

Youngsters who want to skate but have no skates may rent them at the rink for a 50-cent fee per session. The park district purchased 300 pairs of skates of various sizes for rental purposes and they will be available during the opening sessions.

Skate sharpening equipment also has been installed at the rink. Fee for sharpening hockey skates will be 50 cents and for figure skates, 75 cents.

The same schedule of hours as followed Friday will be maintained throughout Saturday, Brown said, also without instruction classes.

Barry Loman, park board president, said today that several minor cracks in the ice present since the rink was opened and the rink will be in readiness for opening tomorrow.

"I know what caused the cracks, probably a variation in the weather, but it doesn't seem to be anything to worry about," Loman said.

Brown reported that a total of 110 identification cards had been issued at the park district office up to yesterday afternoon. The equipment for making the cards will be operating in the park district office through this afternoon, but will

Appellate Court
Finds Errors
in Election Suit

A ruling issued early last February by Circuit Judge I. H. Streeter ordering Granite City to conduct its April 4 municipal election on a "re-larger" basis for seven wards was upheld in error yesterday in a decision by the Fifth District Appellate Court.

The appellate court also held in error the circuit court's denial of the right of the city and members of the city council as co-defendants to file an answer to the writ of mandamus proceeding, and taking the case to trial immediately after overruling a motion to dismiss. The case was remanded to the circuit court.

The proceeding was filed on Jan. 30 by Floyd Miller of Granite City, challenging the city's present setup of eight wards under present population figures. Judge Streeter's ruling also ordered an immediate redistricting of the city into seven wards.

The appellate court decision was issued by Judges Joseph Goldenhersh and Edward C. Eberspacher.

Lutherans' Reformation Dinner Planned Sunday

Local Lutheran Churches will celebrate a month-long celebration of the 400th anniversary of the Reformation with a joint banquet Sunday at 6 p.m. in Concordia Lutheran Church parish hall, 23rd street and Grand avenue.

Featured speaker will be
Rev. Dr. John Constable, a professor at Concordia Seminary, St. Louis, whose topic will be the relevance of the Reformation for the Christian of today.
Rev. Carl Johnson of Peace
Lutheran will be the toastmaster, and Rev. Arvin Twietmeyer of Concordia and Rev.
Samuel Boda of St. John Lutheran, will give the invocation and benediction.

REV. CONSTABLE

Chairman of the special joint Reformation committee is Paul Hafner of St. John Church, and Philip Theis of Peace Church is the treasurer.

The committee of two lay members and pastors will Saturdays when an equal number of Granite City youngsters converge upon Wilson Park at 8 a.m. for the annual give-away project.

Park Supt. Harold Brown
today reminded local children they must provide their own container in order to receive the free fish.

Distribution of goldfish
began several years ago
when park officials found it
less costly to restock the
pools with new fish each year rather than remove
and care for them in the special indoor facilities during the winter months.

Many youngsters return
the fish to the ponds in the spring months, especially those which have outgrown
their fish bowls, the superintendent said.

the annual give-away project.

Park Supt. Harold Brown
today reminded local children they must provide their own container in order to receive the free fish.

Distribution of goldfish
began several years ago
when park officials found it
less costly to restock the
pools with new fish each
year rather than remove
and care for them in the special indoor facilities during
the winter months.

Many youngsters return
the fish to the ponds in the
spring months, especially
those which have outgrown
their fish bowls, the superintendent said.

be moved to the rink tomorrow.

Adults-Only Program

The regular Sunday schedule also will be followed, offering skating sessions from 1 to 2:30 p.m.; 3:30 to 6 p.m. and 6 to 8:30 p.m. for all skaters. A fourth session on all Sundays, and every Sunday thereafter, will constitute an adults-only session. No children through high school ages will be permitted. Older youths who are out of high school, however, will be admitted, but they must pay the regular adult fee.

Brown said the regularly scheduled "family night" also will be instituted next Tuesday at the 5:30 to 8 p.m. session. During that skating session each Tuesday, a children's ticket will be given free with each adult admission paid. This will be limited to Granite City residents.

Children who are residents of Granite City will pay a 35-cent fee for each skating session, with a 60-cent fee charged for children who live outside the city. Adults living within Granite City will pay a 75-cent skating fee. Adults outside the city will pay $1.25.

Tickets in Books

Supt. Brown pointed out that resident skaters also will be a further admission break of five cents per session if they buy their tickets in books of ten. The books cost $7 for adults and $3 for children, making the adult admission 70 cents per session and the children's admission 30 cents.

Beginning last Saturday, Brown's office began preparation and sale of identification cards that will be used to identify resident skaters from those living outside the city in charging skating fees. The cards include an attached colorphoto of the applicant and are issued at a cost of 35 cents. The cost of the cards will be increased to 50 cents after Dec. 31, Brown said.

The cards are prepared with special equipment purchased by the park district at a cost of $2000. Brown explained that the charge of 35 cents for each ID card covers only the cost of materials, including the photograph. Issuance of cards continued this week at the park district office just south of the rink building.

Opening of the rink tomorrow will climax a two-year program that began in the fall of 1965. A $475,000 bond issue to finance the project was approved by park district voters in a referendum held Dec. 18, 1965, following a concerted campaign by civic groups.

First in 26 years the bond issue was the first undertaken by the park district in 26 years, since the 1939 bond issue was approved for construction of the swimming pool at Wilson Park.

The new rink will provide a new form of recreation in Granite City. The skating area of 85x185 feet is covered by a pavilion roof 115 by 230 feet. Brown pointed out that the

Amvets to Get Cannon As Post Home Memorial

A world war howitzer will be shipped to Amvets Post 51 to be mounted as a memorial at the post home, 5100 Lake View drive, it was announced during a meeting last night. The cannon will arrive from an arsenal in Georgia.

Plans for a Nov. 11 Veterans Day divisional observance for which tentative plans had been made was cancelled at the meeting upon receipt of word that a major program is planned at Harrisburg. Members were informed a modernization program will include installation of a new furnace, hot-water heater, stove and refrigerator, and construction of a new novel brick atriumway, and is nearly complete.

Arrangements were made to continue the weekly turkey shoot now being held on Sundays to raise funds for needy families at Christmas. A Halloween party also is planned. Earl Smith was appointed service officer and Arthur Ritz was appointed post historian. Rex Manning, first vice-commander, presided in the absence of Commander Russell Robinson.

Gateway Council Seeks Transit Study Funds

A filing of an application for $180,000 in federal funds to finance part of a second-phase rapid transit study in the metropolitan area was authorized yesterday in a meeting of the East-West Gateway Coordinating Council.

The council also elected Mayor Alvin G. Fields of East St. Louis as the new council chairman, effective Dec. 8. Mayor Fields will succeed Supervisor Lawrence K. Ross of St. Louis county.

skating area is regulation size of standard hockey rinks and will accommodate up to 524 skaters at one time. Accommodation of the rink is based on standards of the Ice Skating Institute of America, of which the park district is a member, that specify the rink area should provide 30 square feet of space for each skater. The Wilson Park rink has 15,725 square feet.

Park workers "lead up" the rink during the past week, a procedure that requires the freezing of many finely sprayed layers of water, each frozen as they are applied by two 80-ton refrigerators connected with many miles of pipes installed in the rink floor. The ice must be three-quarters to one and one-quarter inches thick. The skating surface will be kept smooth through use of an ice resurfacing vehicle known as a Zamboni, bought by the park district at a cost of $10,500. It picks up excess ice loosened by skaters and resurfaces the surface with a new, thin layer of water, an operation requiring about 25 minutes.

Council Opens

Granite, two sections of West Granite—Nevada avenue and the west ends of Cayuga and Denver streets—and two locations in the Nameoki area—in the vicinity of Mercer drive and the western end of West Pontoon road.

Alderman Bartosiak, chairman of the Special Sewer committee, said the bond payment period could be shortened extensively with housing developments along West Pontoon road.

He predicted 200 more homes would be built in that area within the next few years. Overall cost of the project has been set at $254,000, with $100,000 to come from the city's $1,500,000 grant of federal funds, Calvo explained.

The bond retirement period will run from 1968 to the year 2000, Calvo also explained. The interest rate is not to exceed 6%, and the bonds are to be printed by the city in $1000 denominations.

Alderman Von presented the 30-year maximum period for the bond retirement. He is chairman of the Ordinance committee and withdrew his motion for suspension and adoption after commenting the possible interest cost over the 30-year period could amount to more than the bond issue. The motions then were made by Alderman Bartosiak, who said that in order to get construction started as soon as possible, the strict timetable set by the bond authority would have to be followed.

On the 11-to-2 vote for suspension of rules, council members voting "aye" were Dallas, Moerlein, Bartosiak, Whitmer, Poulos, Green, Fry, Jarrett, Robertson, Daves and Johnson. Opposed were Basarich and Norn. On final passage, Alderman Von presented the plaque award presented to Sister Mary Benedict, hospital pharmacist.

In making the presentation, Philip Sullivan, division manager of E. R. Squibb & Sons, Inc., said the local hospital "is the second one in southern Illinois to reach this milestone."

Federal Retirees Form NARCE Chapter Here

Retired Federal Civil Service employees from the Quad-City area, meeting yesterday afternoon at the YMCA, agreed to form a local chapter of the National Association of Retired Civil Employees and elected two officers, according to Sidney M. Harris of Belleville, a NARCE field officer.

Edward J. Erney, 2486 Waterman avenue, was named president, and Mrs. Bertha Berry, 2022 Edwards street, secretary. Other officers will be selected at the next meeting, tentatively scheduled for late November.

Harris said today that all local federal retirees are invited to join the new NARCE unit for which an official chapter will be sought at the next session.

GC Man Indicted By U. S. Jury in Pornography Case

(Special from Springfield) A federal grand jury in Springfield Tuesday indicted a Granite City man on a charge of using the mails for pornographic purposes and broke up a growing nation-wide operation.

He is Delbert Claire Barker, 38, who resides with a juvenile companion, 17, in a basement apartment at 2666 Madison avenue. The girl is to be charged with a violation of the Federal Juvenile Delinquency Act.

The indictment described the non-mailable matter as obscene, lewd, indecent, filthy, vile and hard core pornography. Police said that the man and the girl, who is the mother of a child of 1½ to two years old, were depicted in the photographs taken inside the apartment, and that other persons are involved.

When arrested, the couple remained casual and did not bother to deny anything, police added.

Police Dance Saturday

Police equipment and other projects will be financed from the 1967 Venice-Madison police four-hour Halloween dance open to the public from 8 p.m. Saturday at the Legion hall, 740 Broadway. Costumes will be judged. Tickets costing $1 are available from police and at the door.

U. S. District Atty. Richard E. Eagleton said, "This stopped a rapidly expanding pornography distribution by an investigation by postal authorities and local police. The correspondence indicated a nationwide operation, but not yet an extensive one."

"The operation was developed through correspondence clubs that advertise in sensational magazines—Swinger from Granite City wants to correspond with other swingers."

Wounded TERRY COOPER

Venice Marine Is Wounded in Vietnam Action

Marine Pfc Terry M. Cooper, 19, son of Mr. and Mrs. James C. Cooper of 72 Venice Homes, was wounded in action in Vietnam on Oct. 14 and since has been evacuated to the U. S. Naval Hospital at Yokosuka, Japan, according to word received by his parents. His father is a patrolman on the Venice police department.

Telegrams notifying his parents that Pfc Cooper had been wounded, but was not in dangerous condition, were received by Mr. and Mrs. Cooper from General Wallace M. Greene Jr., commander of the Marine Corps. The telegrams were followed by a letter from their son in which he said the wound was not critical, but "it is going to keep me out of the field awhile."

Gen. Greene said that Pfc Cooper was wounded in the abdomen by shrapnel while under hostile artillery fire in the vicinity of Quang Tri Republic in Vietnam. He was taken to a Third Medical Battalion Hospital at Phu Bai where he underwent surgery and then was transferred to the Naval Hospital in Japan.

Pfc Cooper wrote that while everything had been "going good," he said he guessed was too good to last. The day after he was wounded, the marine related, he was scheduled to be relieved and return to the rear area.

He said that while he was in the hospital at Phu Bai, Martha Raye and a group of entertainers visited the hospital wards. "It was so thrilling . . . I even got to talk to her and other American girls who help her do her shows," Cooper wrote.

Young Cooper entered the service last April and trained 16 weeks at U. S. Marine Corps camps in California. Following a visit home in late August and early September, he returned to Camp Pendleton, Calif., Oct. 5 and two weeks later went to Vietnam.

GCHS at Edwardsville, Wary Of Enemy Ground Offense

Second only to Alton in the power of its running attack, Edwardsville high school will be the Warriors at 8 p.m. Friday in an effort to reverse a trend that has seen GCHS sweep the last four pairings between the teams—13-6 in 1983, 49-0 in 1984, 28-3 in 1985 and 22-6 last year.

The Warriors have won 19, lost 18 and tied six with the Tigers, who could gain a series deadlock with a victory tomorrow. Also at stake is the traveling Aro-Dressel Foods trophy; GCHS retired the first with a third win in 1985, and won rarely has the present trophy.

Winless after six 1967 games, Granite City is last with an 11-4 Southwest Conference record on losses to Collinsville 25-7, Alton 54-0, Wood River 27-0 and East St. Louis 34-0.

The Warriors also tied Cahokia 13-13 and lost to Belleville East 27-0. Their last touchdowns were scored on runs by Quarterback Dave Snelson and Halfback Ron Laws and a Snelson-to-End Jim McCart pass.

Boast Win Over Flyers

Edwardsville, tied for third place, is 1-1-2 in the conference and 2-2-0 overall. The team has beaten the East St. Louis Flyers 29-7 and Belleville East 29-14, tied Collinsville 7-7 and Wood River 0-0 and lost to Alton 42-0 and Belleville A-Half 7-0.

On the basis of comparative scores against five common foes, the Tigers' rank as favorites tomorrow by margins of 12, 18, 27, 33 or 47 points.

Left Halfback Louis Johnson is the leading Tiger ground gainer, averaging 4.1 yards a try-kick yard on 146 carries.

On the rare times Edwardsville has gone to the air, Quarterback Larry Freitag usually has thrown to Left End Mike Henderson; this combination made possible the tie with Collinsville, clicking for a 35-yard TD play.

Edwardsville last week picked up 164 yards on the ground against Alton, the most given up by the Redbirds to a league team. The Tigers outdistanced East St. Louis 107 to 39 yards in rushing.

plans to continue using a comparatively young squad. There have been 21 injuries so far this season, leading to the use of sophomores and juniors as replacements, and the policy is permitting the younger players to gain valuable experience that will be valuable in future seasons.

"I think we're consistently developing, regardless of what the scores say. We hope to force Edwardsville to go to the air more than in their previous games," he noted.

Mike Dochwat is returning to the starting lineup but Ron Laws has been added to the injury list and Ralph Burnett may be out for the season.

Trojans Hope to Rebound in Grid Game at Dupo Tonight

Traditional Halloween colors are orange and black, but the Trojans who are going to be invading Dupo tonight at 8 o'clock will be wearing blue and green and their cry will be a little stronger than "trick or treat."

The Madison high school football Trojans, as well as the Dupo Tigers, will be trying to rebound from losses last weekend. With a win, the Trojans could go into a tie with Madison for fourth place in Midwest Conference standings. The Trojans are 2-1 and Dupo 1-2 in league play.

Madison's season record is much better than the Trojans. The Trojans have won five games and lost one while the Tigers have won one game, lost four and tied one.

In the past games between the two teams, Madison has won 14 times, lost eight and tied one. In 1984, the Trojans shut out Dupo 21-0, and in 1985 they won 13-7. Last year, they shut out Dupo again, 39-0, but the Trojans were awarded the '86 game when Madison had to forfeit later.

Ship Target for Tonight

Evaluating tonight's clash, Dupo Coach Paul Stewart said, "If we can win this game, we stand a chance of winning. I don't mean that it is the only thing that the Trojans have, but if we can set up a good defense for the rest of them."

Stewart told the Press-Record he has been unable to see Madison play this year, but he has detailed scouting reports.

Paul Weber is a fine offensive player for us, averaging four yards a carry. He is a good blocker, can run inside the box on the halfback pass. Weber is also a good punter, getting about 25 yards a try.

On Aerial Attack

"We are primarily a passing team," Weber said. "We have thrown the ball over 90 times this year. Loren Pankoy, our quarterback, likes to throw the ball over 90 times this year. Mrs. Dora Winker, 81, Dies; 50-Year Resident

Mrs. Dorothea "Dora" J. Winker, 81, of 2442 Edwards street, died at 12:45 p.m. yesterday at St. Elizabeth Hospital. She had been in failing health for the past several weeks. She was admitted at the hospital five weeks ago.

A local resident for more than a half-century, Mrs. Winker was born and reared at New Memphis, Ill. She was a member of the Ladies Aid Society, her husband, Fred, died in July 1983. Surviving are a brother, Ewald Geiger, of Granite City, and a sister, Mrs. Nellie White, of St. Louis.

Funeral arrangements are given in today's obituary column.

Dupo touchdowns this season have included runs by Weber and Pankoy and Mike-Lant. Pankoy and Pankoy-to-Weber-Lant passes.

"Do we have an injuries? Thank goodness, no."

Compared to last year's record, Dupo is an improved club. Its only win in nine 1986 games was the Trojans' forfeit.

Tigers Topped Triad

Madison's Coach Harland Schiebel has seen the Trojans play twice this season, a 12-12 tie with Western Military Academy in their opener and an 18-6 victory over Triad two weeks ago.

Schiebel said he does not regret Dupo's 33-13 loss to Mater Dei of Breese last weekend as an indication of the Trojans' actual strength. MHS owns a 33-14 victory over Mater Dei.

"When you get seven passes intercepted, like Dupo did, it takes a lot out of the overall team drive."

Dupo has a much better team than last season. They have good size, Weber carries the ball quite a bit for them, but they like to pass as well as hand it off to him."

Trojan Outlook

The Trojans have made only one change in their lineup for tonight. Pat Economy will move into a line backer position. Also, tackle Dennis Hohl.

Carless Driving Charge

Curtis Betts, 33, Brooklyn, was arrested at 9 p.m. Tuesday by Venice police at Fourth and Hampton streets in Venice and charged with careless driving. A hearing is set Nov. 8.

Area Carpenters Support Plan

Three additional union organizations with jurisdictions in the Granite City-WoodRiver area—where at least one major out-of-town company is investigating potential plant sites—have pledged that if the company builds in the area it will not be troubled with work stoppages due to jurisdictional disagreements, it was announced today.

The "no work stoppage" pledges were made to LAMP, the two-state and Labor and Management Plan sponsored by the Regional Industrial Development Corporation by Eugene P. Ellberg, secretary-treasurer of the Carpenters District Council of Madison County and vicinity; Richard Mantle, business manager of the Asbestos Workers Local One, St. Louis; and Don Hannon, business representative of the Tile and Marble Masons Union 18, St. Louis.

The union statements reinforced pledges made last month by all building and construction trades unions in the Illinois area under consideration to William Horstman, secretary-treasurer of the Council of Southern Illinois Building and Construction Business Representatives.

Ellberg told RIDC that "The 10-Point Program and our pre-job meetings can avoid these stoppages." The 10-Point Program is a statement of policy worked out at top labor-management levels and adopted in 1958 by the AFL-CIO Building and Construction Trades Department and the National Contractors Association. It has been credited with an important role in reducing jurisdictional disputes in the Illinois portion of the eight-county metropolitan region.

"We are completing a three-year job for Granite City Steel Co. amounting to $140 million with the work stoppage listed at 1/100th of 1 percent," Ellberg said.

Plans Ordered For Concession Building at GCHS

Delegations from Granite City Jaycees and a West Granite City group were present at last night's board meeting of the Granite City School Board to draw detailed plans for a new concession building and authorized Supt. B. J. Davis to confer with the youth group.

With Donald Partney Jr. as spokesman, the Jaycees presented preliminary proposals for the long-discussed stadium structure, estimated to cost $20,000.

How it will be financed—possibly from the school budget or a bond issue—remains to be decided but the Jaycees indicated they and Warrior Boosters will be unable to raise the amount. The two groups last April obtained permission to explore fund sources.

A clause in a union agreement restricting public use of schools was cited as preventing further use of the Washington school gymnasium by a neighborhood youth development group started by the Illinois Youth Commission. A conference is planned with Building Service Employees Local 98 on overtime charges to non-profit groups.

Eleven requests for use of buildings were granted. Electrical improvements. A low bid of $41,175 from Dron Electrical Co. for electrical improvements at ten schools was accepted and it was noted that an estimated $40,615 is being saved by Illinois Life Safety Code remodeling revisions worked out by administrators and state officials.

With older schools being remodeled through June 1970, it was decided to schedule the remodeling completions for 1969 through 1973 at eight newer structures and 1968 through 1975 at nine school wings.

Bid awards were made on library books, a sewer auger, green beef patties, magazines, dorms, duplicators and duplicating paper.

Mrs. Jane Ailaup, Collinsville, SU bachelor degree and 11 years of teaching experience, was hired as a Mitchell second grade teacher effective this week. Mrs. Jeanne Schalk, Ferguson, Mo., 1967 SU bachelor degree, was named a Mitchell third grade instructor beginning Dec. 18.

Mrs. Terry Papa, a GCHS physical education and driving teacher, resigned effective Jan. 22.

Reports on continuous-progress "achievement levels" instruction in Granite City grade schools were presented verbally by Owen Blumhrey, curriculum coordinator, and W. R. Brinkhoff, acting director of the gifted student program. A recording of an address to students by Don Lonie, provided by Dr. E. W. Walton, board secretary, was heard near the end of the meeting.

Dennis Ketchie to Lead Scholarship Foundation

Dennis Ketchie, assistant personnel director for Tri-City Grocery Co., was elected president of the Granite City Scholarship Foundation during a meeting of the foundation board Tuesday evening at the high school.

Ketchie, who was vice-president, succeeds Lacy Randolph, of American Steel Foundries. Board members are representatives of firms and organizations that donate to the scholarship fund.

Iran Trip Topic of GC Kiwanis Meeting. Ralph E. Frohardt, 2445 State street, former principal of Coolidge junior high school, who visited Iran earlier this year, discussed his trip and showed colored slides Monday evening at the Kiwanis Club's dinner meeting in the Rose Bowl.

Frohardt described unusual Iranian customs and scenic beauty found in the Middle-Eastern country, explaining when compared to U.S. standards, large segments of the population are poverty stricken. He pointed out that after attending kindergarten classes, boys and girls are educated separately, noting also that at all public gatherings men and women are segregated into different groups.

Marvin Barnes was program chairman.

In accepting chairmanship of the first annual TB seal campaign, Butler described it as "one of the most important jobs I have ever had," and noted that he had a personal reason for accepting the post.

Clean Air Dispute Continues in County

A proposed substitute county air pollution ordinance was criticized as being more restrictive for control purposes than the one under consideration during a meeting of the county air pollution committee Monday night at Edwardsville.

George Arnold, technical adviser for the committee and an air and water pollution research associate at Southern Illinois University-Southwestern campus, said there were differences in definitions of air pollution between the county ordinance and a substitute submitted by the Manufacturers Association of the Tri-Cities.

The county ordinance, prepared by State's Atty. Leon Craggins, defines pollution as material in the outdoor air which "tends to be injurious" or which "would interfere with the enjoyment of life and property."

The substitute, Arnold said, states that contaminants in the air which constitute pollution must be injurious or "unreasonably interfere" with the enjoyment of life and property. He said it is much more difficult to determine what is "unreasonably" interference, or to show that contaminants are definitely injurious, than it is to show they "tend to be injurious."

Arnold also stated that the substitute bill would not provide sufficient operating funds. An ordinance is to be presented to the Nov. 22 meeting of the Madison county board of supervisors for action.

Used Eye-Glasses for Overseas Requested

The Kiwanis Club of Granite City at its meeting Monday evening endorsed a request by Dennis Gillie, 24 Oaklawn drive, to help him secure used reading glasses or sunglasses to be made available to such areas of the free world as the Philippines, France, Oman, Arabia, Labrador, India, Africa and South America.

Gillie said the eye-glasses will be provided indigent persons with impaired vision. Reusable plastic or metal frames for distribution, he explained.

Quad-Cities are invited to take the unused and discarded reading or sun glasses to the Credit Office at W. T. Grant store in Nameoki Village shopping center, or Graham's Book store, Niedringhaus and Delmar avenues, starting today. The drive will end Nov. 2.

Gillie said he plans to collect and forward the eye-glasses to "New Eyes for the Needy, Inc." in New Jersey.

The "New Eyes" program, a nonprofit, nonsectarian volunteer organization is endorsed by the National Society for the Prevention of Blindness, Fight for Sight, Inc., and the American Academy of Ophthalmology and Otolaryngology, Gillie said.

NO MATTER "WITCH" WAY YOU LOOK AT IT... IT'S A FACT. FOOD IS CHEAPER!

Did you ever buy a loaf of bread that cost 60c???? An angel food cake that cost $1.24, a dozen eggs for $1.68, new potatoes at 48c each or a bottle of catsup for $1.20???? OF COURSE NOT... But those are some of the prices you would be paying if food prices had increased at the same rate as disposable income has gone up in the past 50 years

Those sudden showers that bring relief after prolonged dry spells can bring trouble to unwary motorists. The Auto Club's Illinois Division says it takes at least a day and sometimes two to wash away the accumulated film that builds up on the highway. A short rain shower only serves to make the road slippery and stopping may require twice the normal distance.

Improvement Delayed For Michigan Avenue

A motor fuel tax project for Michigan Avenue improvement between Benton street and Troy avenue was cancelled for the present but is expected to be reviewed next spring when the city learns where new storm drainage lines are to be located.

Bids for the project were opened in September, with G. H. Sternberg Co. the low bidder. Council members have been informed the $3,000,000 storm water drainage program is to include a line along Michigan Avenue, but the exact location is not known since the H. W. Lochner Co. engineering firm will not have the detailed plans until December. By that time, the construction period for the calendar year will be ended.

Notification was received from the state highway department of its acceptance of the motor fuel tax improvements on Clark, Lindell, Cottage and Garfield avenues off Nameoki road, a project completed by G. H. Sternberg Co.

Approved by the city were state plans for Federal Aid Route 151 through West Granite and into Lincoln place. The highway department advised the city that the plan submitted to the city did not include a frontage road between West 20th and Cayuga streets and is being corrected.

In other business, the council authorized the sewage treatment plant superintendent to have a heater-defroster installed in the plant's utility vehicle and to get prices on a trailer so that waste from the grit chamber can be hauled to the city dump.

Alderman Moerlein, chairman of the Treatment Plant committee, said an easement across Army Depot property is being sought for installation of a water line to the treatment plant. The plant now buys water from the depot, and with a separate line the savings could amount to several thousand dollars a year, Moerlein said. Mayor Partney is to submit a written request to depot authorities. Moerlein added that East St. Louis & Interurban Water Co. officials have indicated they will engineer the installation once an easement is granted.

The treatment plant superintendent, John Hildebrand, is to be asked by Mayor Partney to submit a letter advising the council of the date he plans to move to Granite City. He and his family now resides in East St. Louis.

Iris Blooms in Yard On Kilarney Drive

An iris is blooming in a backyard flower bed at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Ruben Mendoza, 2432 Kilarney drive.

Iris blooms usually in spring and summer, from about March through July, but the plants in the Mendoza yard must have become confused with the summerlike weather of last weekend.

Mrs. Mendoza said she discovered the purple and lavender bloom on Monday.

2 Zoning Change Requests Will Go To Plan Board

Two petitions for zoning changes were received Monday night along with an amendment to the zoning ordinance which was approved by Granite City council members.

Requests for zoning changes were referred to the City Plan Commission for recommendations following its hearings in November.

Mr. and Mrs. Darrell Crews are seeking a special use permit for a two-family residence at 2263 Madison avenue now zoned R-4 residential for development of a laundromat.

Approved by the council was an ordinance changing the zoning designation at 2441 East 24th street from R-3 single-family dwelling to R-3 multiple-family dwelling for an apartment house to be redeveloped by Mr. and Mrs. Paul Hagler.

It was noted the City Plan Commission had approved the change last May 15. Referred to the city attorney was a request from Leslie Crawford, 4137 North street, for payment of a $200 hospital and doctor bill for injuries which she said were suffered Sept. 20 in a sidewalk fall in the 1300 block of 19th street.

Referred to the city attorney was a request from Leslie Crawford, 4137 North street, for payment of a $200 hospital and doctor bill for injuries which she said were suffered Sept. 20 in a sidewalk fall in the 1300 block of 19th street.

Coolidge Art Teacher To Attend Conference

Robert Moske, Coolidge junior high school art teacher and first vice-president of the Illinois Art Education Association, will participate in the association's annual art education conference to be held Nov. 9, 10 and 11 at Peoria.

During the first day of the conference, Moske, together with art educators from many Illinois school districts, will visit art studios, galleries and manufacturers of art products such as pottery and labels.

Also scheduled for the same day is a tour of the Illinois Craftsmen's Invitational Exhibition at Lakeview Center, an event co-sponsored by the Illinois Arts Council, the Center and the Craftsmen.

In conjunction with the exhibition, a series of sculpture demonstrations will be given for the teachers.

The artists will demonstrate wood construction, direct plaster, glass blowing, clay slab building, white metal casting and other techniques.

Additionally, there will be an exhibit of children's work from the Peoria schools, and conferees may view the Art Mobile of the Illinois State Education Department. The traveling exhibit was fostered by William Bealmer, assistant superintendent of education, who will be a key speaker at the conference.

Fund Transfers For 4 Accounts Ok'd by Council

Fund transfers recommended by City Comptroller Robert Stevens to keep four general fund accounts from showing deficits at the half-way mark of the city fiscal year were approved Monday night by Granite City council members who later voiced protests over failure for another transfer for payment of bills due under the sewer maintenance program.

The approved transfer was $17,000 from the $87,000 sales tax account, with $10,000 going to the general government fund, $3,000 to the inspection department fund, $3,000 to the school crossing guard fund and $1,000 to the air pollution fund.

Alderman Norn noted that bills totaling $2083 for the sewer maintenance fund were included on the bill list and were approved, but there was no resolution to transfer funds or set up a special account to carry out the payments.

"Where's the resolution that was requested last week. These bills are long overdue and they should be paid," Norn asked.

City Atty. Allen replied that he had written to the legal staff of the Illinois Municipal League for an opinion on such a procedure and did not have the reply. "I'll have it ready after I get the legal information," Allen told Norn.

The alderman then asked why the comptroller was able to get in a resolution for a fund transfer. Allen answered that he had provided Stevens with a form of a routine transfer resolution for use when needed.

Legal Opinion Requested

Allen added that he had been asked by the council to provide a legal opinion on the fund transfer for the sewer maintenance fund which has a deficit of $83,885.

Several months ago, City Treasurer E. R. Rich advised the council he could not legally write checks for payment of bills on accounts with deficits, and for that reason the bills for sewer maintenance were not being paid.

It was suggested last week that a special account be set

City Seeks Way to Drain Franklin Avenue

Battling over special improvement projects in Granite City was resumed Monday night by city council members intent on solving a drainage problem that has existed for years along Franklin avenue.

After considerable debate, approval was given 9-3 to engineering work to provide a cost estimate for the proposed project between Amos and Clark avenues.

Alderman Johnson, chairman of the Street committee, who was asked last week to find a solution to the problem, said there was no easy solution and that engineering would be required.

Mayor Partney remarked that it would be foolish to spend money for engineering since the city has no funds to carry out the project.

Johnson Presses Question

He was asked by Johnson, "Are we just going to let the people sit and be inundated and flooded out? There's no drainage program for the area for the next five to 10 years. These people have been faced with this flooding for years, and they are entitled to relief from the water."

In the discussion on the motion, Alderman Fry asked if the project had not been engineered before and a cost estimate set at $25,000.

Mayor Partney commented it might be better to look through city records "to make certain we don't engineer the same project twice."

Joining the discussion, Alderman Whitmer pointed out the city already had cut most special improvement projects from the current budget, including the overall program started several years ago to save deteriorating concrete street with blacktopping. "We won't be able to take it up until next year's budget," he remarked.

Poulos added that there has long been a need for proper drainage in the 1400 block of Iowa street and Washington avenue. "Let's don't forget about those people," he added.

Pending approval by the state highway department, the council approved a request by Wells Tire-City Tire Co. for a 50-foot driveway at 2246 Madison avenue.

Man Loses Wallet

Delbert Willtrout, 131 Briarcliff, reported Monday that he lost his wallet in the vicinity of Wilson Park. It contained his driver's license, draft card and papers.

Two Traffic Charges

Michael W. Ball, 65 Kaseberg Park, was charged with speeding and driving with an improper muffler Monday at 3000 Madison avenue.

Red Cross Youths to Solicit for Unicef

Members of the Red Cross Youth Club at Granite City high school will be "Trick-or-Treating" Saturday evening in Granite City neighborhoods to benefit Unicef.

Members will be dressed in Raggedy Anne and Raggedy Andy costumes. Their slogan is "Be a Doll and Donate to Unicef." The faculty sponsor is Mrs. Sonya Adkerson.

up with $5000 in order to pay current bills against the sewer maintenance fund, but there was indecision if this could be done before six months of the fiscal year had passed. The city's fiscal year started May 1.

Deficit Wipeout Rejected

In recent months, attempts have been made to use working cash fund and sales tax fund reserves to wipe out the sewer maintenance fund $83,885 deficit, but the council has refused.

The bills approved Monday night for sewer maintenance will not be paid until the decision on the transfer is reached.

Overdue are payments of $269 to Southwestern Bell Telephone Co. for the lift station warning system; $347 to Illinois Power Co. for lift station electricity; $8 to Don's Welding Shop; $33 to a business form firm, $106 to Addressograph Multigraph; $5 to Superior Express; $49 to the Press-Record; $2 to Graham's Book store; $349 to the recorder of deeds; $18 to Tri-City Printing Co.; $64 to Jack D. Huggins for auditing the sewer fund accounts, and $109 to R. Dron Electric Co. for maintenance of lift stations from June through August.

With the fund transfer to the school crossing guard account approved, Alderman Johnson called for employment of a full-time guard at the Amos avenue-Johnson road crossing. The hiring of a guard there was authorized by the council last spring.

Good news!

Here's good news for telephone users. You no longer dial the Area Code on many Long Distance and charge calls. If the Area Code of the phone you're calling is the same as yours—618—you simply dial the one-digit Long Distance code, then the telephone number. Your call zips through faster than ever.

If you're calling Long Distance to a phone with an Area Code different from 618, you'll continue dialing the one-digit Long Distance code, the Area Code and the telephone number.

For complete information on dialing charge calls and for a handy list of Area Codes, see the front pages of your new telephone directory.

Motorists Should be Alert For 'Goblins' in Streets

"The night of Oct. 31 and several nights preceding it are special 'drive carefully' nights," warns the Quad-City Safety Council.

Anyone old enough to drive may have forgotten the significance of this date, but any small child will be glad to remind the forgetful that it is the night of goblins, ghosts and Trick or Treat is Halloween.

The Safety Council urges each driver to remember that there will be more little children on the street after dark on Halloween than on any other night of the year.

"These children will be thinking of candy, witches, ghosts and not about the traffic around them," says Raymond Christman, president of the council. "Just as a motorist is driving by, one of these little goblins is likely to dart across the street to see what candy treasures await him. It will be up to the drivers to watch sharply for these sudden movements, and be prepared to react instantly to them."

The Council also has a word of caution for the parents: "Be certain the child wears something white, even if it is only a large handkerchief tied on his arm. Many costumes are black and almost impossible for the motorist to see at night."

"Remember that Halloween is for the children," says Christman, "and it is up to both the motorist and the parent to do everything possible to see that children come home safely with their brimming bags."

Sales, Earnings Down For Johns-Manville

Sales and earnings of Johns-Manville Corp. for the first nine months of 1967 did not match the record levels set in 1966, W. L. Millmore, manager of the Johns-Manville Products Corp. plant, 1228 Bissell street, Venice, was informed this week by C. B. Burnett, president.

Sales were $372,206,000, down from $388,632,000 and earnings were $18,092,000 or $2.24 a share, down from $28,377,000 and $3.35. Third-quarter sales improved over the first two quarters, aided by an upturn in residential construction, but there were lower earnings due to unfavorable selling prices and higher wage and raw material costs.

Mississippi River Draws Much of New Industry

The Mississippi river ranked first among the nation's waterways in attracting construction and expansion of industry during the third quarter of the year, according to a report at Washington Tuesday by American Waterways Operators, Inc.

Braxton B. Carr, president of the organization, said data collected by the association, which represents the nation's towboat, barge and industry, indicates that 17 production industries selected sites on the Mississippi river for construction or expansion of plant facilities during July, August and September. Most of them went to the lower Mississippi river all new waterside plant facilities reported in the survey for the period.

Forty-eight of the 97 production industries conducted or expanded or for which plans were announced during the third quarter reported investment expenditures of more than $1.2 billion.

Analysis of the 97 waterside sites developed in the third quarter shows that in addition to the 32 chemical plants, 27 of the new projects were terminals, docks and wharves; 20 were metal producing units; four petroleum units; three general manufacturing plants, three paper plants, two lumber facilities, two power plants, one rubber facility, a salt refinery, a shipyard and a fertilizer plant.

Unlocked Doors Invite Thieves to Steal Autos

Failure of car owners to close windows of their cars when parking, removing the ignition keys, then locking the car doors is not only the greatest single factor in car theft today, it is also one of the major contributing causes of automobile accidents, the state police headquarters advised today.

No estimate of damages done to the 557,000 cars stolen in 1966 could be made, insurance companies report, but it is estimated that the total value of the nearly 90,000 stolen cars which are never recovered amounts to more than $65,000,000. Another $33,000,000 loss is incurred by car owners as a result of the theft of property from cars parked without locked doors.

More than 90,000 stolen cars were involved in accidents in 1966, the Department of Justice reported in its continuing study of crime in the United States. At least 20% of those accidents caused injuries to one or more persons.

The department's report states that in 1966 69% of the cars stolen were left unattended with keys in the ignition. Eighty per cent of the stolen cars were left with the doors unlocked.

Air-Conditioner Is Needed at Council Meeting

Air conditioning was most welcome during Monday night's Granite City council session when the room temperature went into the 80s, and the aldermen began removing their coats.

During the past several months, the council has held shirt-sleeve sessions with makeshift efforts to keep cool while the large air-conditioning unit was out of order. Several aldermen even carried electric fans to the meetings in July and August.

A compressor on the unit had gone out, and after several attempts at repairs, the council okayed a new compressor. Announcement of the completed repairs was made several weeks ago on a cool Monday evening when the unit was not needed.

But—the $1467 repair bill was presented to the council Monday night—on an evening the unit was needed.

The bill list also included $400 for aldermanic monthly expense allowances; $10,400 for disposal service in October, paid to National Disposal Service; the mayor's monthly expense allowance of $261, and a payment of $2392 to A. H. Seebold Co. for 158 cubic yards of concrete supplied to the city from Sept. 28 to Oct. 13.

Also approved by the council was the city payroll for the last half of October amounting to $45,450, and sick leave payments of $884.

GC Man Arrested On Fugitive Warrant

Melton L. Miller of Granite City was taken into custody by Granite City police at 7:30 p.m. Monday in the Briarwood area on a fugitive warrant. Police said he is wanted in Oakland, Calif., in connection with a burglary charge. He was transferred to the Madison county jail at Edwardsville.

Yield Signs Proposed at 5 Locations; No-Parking Zones

Two traffic control ordinances were presented to Granite City council members Monday night—one to place yield, right-of-way signs at seven divisions in Yourees Colonial subdivision and the other to establish no-parking zones on 15th street east of Grand avenue.

The yield sign ordinance was placed on first reading as Alderman Nomm, chairman of the Ordinance committee, challenged the effectiveness of the signs, saying he favored stop signs "because they mean more to motorists."

Locations for the proposed yield signs are—On Troy avenue at Michigan avenue, on St. James avenue at Oregon avenue, on St. Paul avenue at Indiana avenue and on Indiana avenue at Troy avenue. All the streets are in the area off Benton street, west of Wilson Park.

The no-parking zones are to be along the north and south sides of 15th street for a distance of 75 feet of Grand avenue. The ordinance had been placed on first reading last week and was adopted Monday night.

She-Way Hazard
Further study is to be given the hazards to school children at the Washington-Niedringhaus-2nd street intersection near McKinley grade school. Since Washington avenue has been changed in direction from northbound to southbound, the hazards have increased, it was noted. Alderman Whitmer, chairman of the Police committee, said the traffic division has studied the problem and offers as a solution the reversal of direction of travel in the 2000 and 2100 blocks of Washington avenue to one-way, northbound. No action was taken by the council pending further study.

Preparations to remove bus zones in the West Granite and other areas of the city were started Monday night. The locations listed for abandonment of zones were on Rock road at Greens confectionery, 2901 Cayuga street, at 1900 St. Clair avenue, and on 25th street between Edison avenue and State street and between Madison and Grand avenues.

Alderman Nomm argued that with curtailment of bus service by Bi-State Transit Co. that the city should abandon most of the bus zones and provided added parking spaces for autos.

Think of Bus Rider!
Moerlen replied that council members also should consider the pedestrian who rides the bus and not force him to go into the street to board a bus.

"What would happen if the buses had to stop in the street to pick up or let off passengers?" was asked.

The mayor answered that the bus driver probably would be issued an arrest ticket for blocking traffic or double parking.

Nomm persisted that requests had been made for removal of the five bus zones, and that an ordinance should be prepared. Referred to the Street committee was a request by Southwestern Bell Telephone Co. for an excavation along Pontoon road between Franklin and Wabash avenues for a 52-foot ditch to install conduits. The work is scheduled to start Nov. 1 and be completed by Nov. 30.

State Jaycees President Stresses 'Leadership'

Illinois Jaycee President W. E. "Skip" Dunkirk of Bloomington is urging all Jaycee members to assume more active leadership roles in civic affairs, according to James Jeffries, president of the Granite City Jaycee chapter, which hosted a District 9 dinner meeting here this week.

More than 350 representatives and their wives from 28 District Eight clubs heard the state Jaycee president stress the need for increased participation in community projects when he addressed the overflow crowd at the VFW Hall, Jeffries reported.

The state officer also congratulated Ronald Pennell, a Granite City high school teacher and local Jaycee member, who received the "Speak-Up" award for outstanding performance in a district contest.

Organist Jack Johnson furnished music before and during the dinner hour. Other entertainment provided in the early evening was an appearance by Miss Granite City—Linda Sabo—who presented several selections from Broadway musicals, and concluded with "Georgie Girl."

Business transacted at the evening session, included awarding of bids to four chapters, Jeffries reports. Successful bids were entered by the Alton club which will host the 1968 sectional sports competition; — winter board meeting; Carlyle chapter — the district bowling tournament; and the Lincoln chapter — 1968 spring basketball tournament.

United Fund Aids Quad-Cityans with Medical Problems

The Health Services Fund of the Tri-Cities Area United Fund is available to Quad-Cityans with medical problems beyond their financial resources.

The agency is handled by a committee of Quad-Cityans, headed by Arthur D. Roseman, who serve as a review board and volunteer their services to the community.

Requests for assistance are referred by physicians, clergymen or individuals and are studied by social agencies qualified to make such case-studies for recommendation. Payments are made to agencies, individuals, hospitals, drug stores or other medical dispensing services from United Fund monies.

This year 37 persons so far have been served with Health Services Fund payments, and the total amount of aid given in nine months has amounted to $384, from the $7500 allocation.

Originally, the Health Services Fund was set up to offer allocations to national health agencies to put an end to separate fund drives. However, the national health agencies have refused to seek United Fund monies and prefer to conduct their separate drives each year.

The aid given so far this year has included payments for treatment of ailments such as cancer, diabetes, heart disease, hepatitis, multiple sclerosis, a perforated ulcer and for mental and nervous disorders as well as sight and general ailments.

These individual allocations have been handled through the Red Cross for its bloodmobile, Catholic Charities, the JOC, the APT-CIO Community Services, the hospital immunization clinic, the Mental Health Clinic, Protestant Welfare and the Visiting Nurses Association.

Through the Red Cross bloodmobile, the Health Services Fund paid $763, or 90 cents per pint, for the blood collection and cancer costs. The other expenditures so far this year include $1399 for heart victims, $500 for the Nov. 8 and Nov. 13, to general ailments, $236 for cancer patients, $11 for diabetes, $139 for multiple sclerosis, $13 for a sight ailment, $100 for hepatitis and $64 for the immunization clinic.

SIU-SW Low on Beatnik Types, Official Says

Few beatnik or hippie types can be found among students attending Southern Illinois University-Southwestern campus, according to Col. Charles B. Schweizer, U.S. Army (Ret.), a university official.

"Our students are there to learn, rather than protest," he commented. The former local Army Depot commander, who now serves as associate director of the SIU Foundation, discussed the aspects of campus life and the overall effect of SIU-SW on area communities when he addressed Granite City Rotarians at their luncheon meeting Tuesday in the YMCA.

Educational opportunities at SIU-SW appeal to many students whose financial resources are limited—who come to our campus to learn, more than to join protest groups, Col. Schweizer said. "I imagine you could count the number of hippies we have around on your fingers, the percentage is not even worth mentioning," he added.

Commenting that he believes establishment of the SIU-SW campus has helped local area communities achieve greater independence in the cultural field, the associate director pointed out that area residents no longer have to travel to St. Louis to hear lectures by noted authorities in a variety of subjects, or listen to talented musical groups.

"In fact," he added, "many St. Louisans are now observed coming here to programs offered at SIU-SW."

Col. Schweizer reported that SIU has the largest graduate school enrollment among all Illinois state universities and ranks 21st nationally in the number of post-graduate students enrolled.

Various endowment plans were reviewed by the foundation official, who also commented that local residents wishing to donate books or art objects to the university, may contact him to arrange for a SIU-SW representative to view the gifts.

Col. Schweizer was introduced by Chris Pashoff, program chairman.

Arthur R. Koerper, club president, conducted the business session, during which Edward Meng reported attending a "Rotary Four" roundtable meeting, held earlier this week in Springfield.

Approximately 90 club members and a guest, Dale Devine, attended Tuesday's luncheon meeting.

State Jobs Available in Madison County

The Illinois State Department of Personnel has begun a special recruitment drive to fill existing vacancies in Madison county and other areas of Illinois, Miss Maude Myers, personnel director, said this week.

The director said that positions exist throughout Illinois and interested persons with training, education and experience in any of the positions covered by the State Merit System should apply to Robert P. Gonnell, recruitment supervisor, Department of Personnel, 508 Centennial Building, Springfield, Ill.

Jobs of interest to Madison county residents, together with minimum and maximum monthly salary range, include: Community worker I, $440 to $616; employer relations representative, $600 to $775; employment counselors I, $615 to $805; medical x-ray technician I, $425 to $595; mental health rehabilitation counselor I, $550 to $695.

Meetings are set for the next three Monday nights, Oct. 30, Nov. 6 and Nov. 13, to coordinate the recruiting of additional neighborhood commissioners.

Commissioners serving the units—club packs, scout troops and explorer posts—in their neighborhoods to help maintain the quality and effectiveness of the scouting program. Due to current expansion of the number of units, additional commissioners are needed.

Present commissioners, district board members, unit committeemen and others will attend, with Stone presiding. District Executive Edwin Menke Jr. outlining present commissioner and unit statistics and Royce explaining goals of the fall recruiting effort.

The initial "dessert" gathering is set for 6:30 p.m. to 7:15 p.m. Monday at the Mitchell Presbyterian Church, East Chain of Rocks road and Greenway drive. Location of the other two meetings will be determined that night.

Plans call for prospective commissioners to be invited to the November sessions for discussion of procedures, planning of unit visitation and conducting of training.

Council Debates, Then OKs $50 Bill to Repaint Auto

Council members had a little time on their hands Monday evening with a short agenda and short meeting and undertook a full-scale debate on a $50 bill for repainting a Granite City's auto that was wrecked accidentally by the city painter.

The $50 bill had been voted down last week, but was resubmitted Monday night. When a dispute on parliamentary procedure developed on an 8-40-52 vote for reconsideration after the mayor had declared the motion lost, Alderman Basarich said that if he were the auto owner, he'd sue the city. The owner, David McFarland, was in the audience and commented, "I will!" However, the mayor's ruling was protested by several aldermen, and City Atty. Allen agreed that a majority vote was all that was needed for reconsideration. (Three aldermen were absent Monday night—Rutledge and Boyd, who recently underwent surgery, and Parmley, who notified the clerk he was working the 3 to 11 p.m. shift.)

Basarich, who then motioned for the $50 to be paid to McFarland, said the city painter had admitted that yellow paint was blown on the 1980 white auto at 21st street and Grand avenue while stripes were being painted on the streets four months ago.

Golden Pines

Golden colored pines are the ideal, not a disaster. Yellow needles on the inside portion of pines are a normal development.

Every pine tree drops a portion of its needles every year as a normal part of its growing cycle. This needle drop is often rather dramatic when these needles suddenly turn golden. Vigorous trees appear hard hit because fast growth creates many new needles each year, and drops a large number of old ones as part of the growth pattern.

I'm sure you noticed the bare limbs on the inside of the tree. The needles have already dropped. The soft needle blanket on the ground is a collection of the drop each fall. Pine needles normally function for two summers, then drop during the third season. If you will count the season's growth on your tree, you can determine which season's needles are dropping. If last year's needles are dropping, or some of this summer needles, a fungus or insect problem has developed.

Tree Lovers Field Day

Autumn color of native and selected trees is at its peak. Tree lovers can enjoy this beauty as they drive through the country side.

If you are selecting a tree for fall or next spring planting, then neighborhood drives can help you to see how other people's choices are working out. Relative size is pretty important for your home, but fall color can be an extra bonus. Knock on doors if you see one you cannot identify. Most tree lovers are glad to tell you how their choice is working out.

For a good discussion of many locally recommended trees for street and home planting, call the local Cooperative Extension Service office in Edwardsville (Belleville) and request a copy of a new Extension Circular, "Trees for Your Community." Extension Circular 534, or write to Agricultural Publications Office, 123 Mumford Hall, Urbana, Ill. 61801.

Bluegrass and Blight
Melting out disease took a heavy toll of bluegrass during the summer.

Complete die out and rotting of small patches, or of individual plants, was the common summer symptom. Small patches of sickly yellow grass is the same disease during cool weather. Leaf spot is another common fall symptom. Die-out (crown rot phase) is not as common during the fall and spring because the plant is growing and able to survive the disease.

Chemical control is very difficult, but natural resistance is common. Wherever the disease is active, some bluegrass plants survive and flourish, while others weaken and die. As the survivors spread into the nearby thin spots, a better turf develops because of this resistance.

Turf specialists have discovered certain varieties of bluegrass to be quite resistant to melting out disease. One of these is Windsor Kentucky Bluegrass. Some turf experts play it safe and use a mixture of these. If reseeding, or a new seeding is part of your plans one of these varieties is worth special consideration.

Iron, Steel Engineers

To Hold Meeting Here

"The Chemistry of Electronics" will be the subject of the technical paper presented next Wednesday, at a meeting of the St. Louis Section, Association of Iron and Steel Engineers. The dinner meeting and technical session will begin at 6 p.m. in the Elks Club, Granite City, Illinois.

Dr. R. Pellin, director, Sillco Division, Monsanto Corp., St. Peters, Mo., will present the technical paper. Although sponsored by AISE, the meeting is open to men from steel and related industries.

Services for Former Resident in Florida

Word was received here this week of the death of Roy Lee Hook, 75, of Cocoa, Fla., formerly of Granite City, who died of emphysema and heart disease Oct. 12 at a Rockledge, Fla., hospital. Funeral services were held in Florida on Oct. 16.

Mr. Hook and his wife, Mary, who survives, had moved to Florida 18 months ago. He had resided in Granite City since the early 1940s, coming here from Indianapolis, Ind. Prior to retirement, he was employed by the B & O Railroad as a fireman at the Venice yards. Previously, he worked out of the railroad's Indianapolis center.

A world war on veteran, Mr.

Hook acted as service and welfare officer of DAV Chapter 53. He was active in Granite City Moose Lodge 272, where members affectionately called him "Old Dear," a nickname that endured for many years.

Besides his wife, also surviving are a step-son, Doyle Teper, 2305 Paul avenue; a daughter, Mrs. Alice Hockstrauser, Fort Lauderdale, Fla.; a brother, Paul Hook of Indianapolis; and two grandchildren here.

Hit-Run Accident

A car driven by Thomas E. Short, Maplewood, Mo., was damaged at the right front at 8:50 p.m. Monday in a collision with a car whose driver fled the scene. Short told Madison police that he and the other driver were both headed south on State street when the other car attempted to make a left turn in front of him. The driver of the other car made the turn and drove away, leaving a headlight rim at the scene.

Loose Federal Spending Putting Inflationary Squeeze On the Poor

(Federal Finance Committee, Council of State Chambers of Commerce)

(First of three articles)

The tax increase proposed by President Johnson on Aug. 3, 1967, has alerted the country to the long developing federal fiscal emergency.

A budget deficit that may reach as high as $29 billion without a tax increase is now the dismal prospect.

This huge deficit is related both to the Vietnam war and soaring domestic expenditures. If the latter had been rationally controlled, budget needs would be substantially less.

Federal fiscal affairs have long suffered from an unwillingness to face the plain facts of life.

We have been living for years in a dream world of illusion, inflation, and the preparation to cope with our grim fiscal situation.

Federal spending has spilled out in hundreds of billions of dollars for every conceivable project.

Money madness has dulled our senses to the waste of money government spending, to mounting living costs resulting from insidious creeping inflation, and to the unfairness of inflation to the poor, the aged, and others with fixed incomes.

It has also blinded us to the inevitable national instability and economic illness produced by successive doses of inflation through government deficit financing.

Cheap Money, Endless Red Ink
Stripped of its cloak of mystery and infallibility, the so-called "New Economics" is the political economy of cheap money and endless inflation as the "Open Sesame" to vistas of unlimited prosperity for all.

The economic motivation and activities of 200 million Americans and, if need be, of much of the world's population are essentially to come in for their exercises of "fine-tuning" and "push-button" techniques by central authorities.

Federal spending increases, tax manipulations, and deficit financing have been the measures employed to spur economic growth with little thought about the dangers of inflation but an acceptance of its consequences.

"Spend today and pay tomorrow" has been the nation's political and financial policy.

Now we are jolted with demands for a temporary tax increase and acquiescence to the extra pay of our politicians after the proposed increase.

When to Buy Municipal Bonds

By THOMAS E. O'HARA
Chairman, National Association of Investment Clubs

Q. I've never invested, but I'm saving up right now to buy one of those municipal bonds at $1000. I like the fact that they are tax-free and a drive-in restaurant and clear about $10,000 a year. Do you think I'm on the right track?

A. No, I don't. Municipal bonds are quite safe, of course, and the fact that they are tax-free makes them attractive under certain circumstances, even though they may yield only two or three percent a year.

However, it sounds to me like your major objective is escaping taxes and I don't think that is the best objective for an investor. Municipals are more for the person with an income several times yours.

For a person in the higher tax brackets, an investment in municipals probably will put more spending money in his pocket than would an investment in stocks paying a much higher return.

A man in the $10,000-a-year income bracket, however, should be less concerned with the few dollars he can save in taxes than with putting his money into securities that will help him keep up with or pass inflation.

Contact a broker and get his advice on some good common stocks you can buy. After paying taxes on common stock dividends, you'll still have more net income—and I presume that's what you're after.

Better still, get together with some friends and start your own investment club. The few dollars you'll invest each month will teach you a great deal about successful investing and will also provide you with some wonderful ideas of where you can put that $1000 profitably once you have it saved.

My wife and I, and in our middle 50s, both employed, and between us have a net worth of about $10,000.

Our home, $35,000 in common stocks, some rental properties, etc.

In view of the spiraling inflation...

without assurance that run-away federal finances will be brought under control.

Because of budget and sound, stable economic growth without an ever-advancing price level are not promised. Nor are they in sight.

Inflation, Heavy Taxes
Deficits, inflation and heavy taxes have been the lot of the American people for many years.

The federal administrative budget has not been balanced since 1960.

In 21 fiscal years since the passage of World War II the budget has been balanced only six times.

Contrary to Washington propaganda, inflation is not recently with the great escalation of the Vietnam war, domestic spending has increased much faster than the military.

Creeping inflation, largely generated by government spending, has long plagued the country.

The Labor Department cost-of-living index keeps climbing upward.

The index for July 1967 shows that a family would have to spend $116.50 for goods and services of a similar nature costing $48.40 in 1939 and $68.00 in 1946, at the end of World War II.

Living costs have much more than doubled since 1939 and were 71% higher than the 1946 level in July 1967.

Payment Balance Deficit
As might be expected, federal budget deficits, decline in the purchasing power of the dollar, and vast foreign commitments have been accompanied by yearly deficits in the balance of payments.

Unfortunately, deficits as high as $1 billion to $2 billion a year in our international accounts seem to be accepted as normal by some influential persons.

The drain on our gold stock reserves unabated. Our gold reserves are down to $13.1 billion, from $29 billion in 1959.

Potential foreign claims against our gold are $30 billion, as compared to $10 billion in 1959.

Our government has been working for a new world currency based primarily on credit and paper.

We are apparently moving fast toward a "Paper Gold" standard.

More American and world-wide inflation is implied by our monetary and fiscal policy.

Next: Confused policy, practice.

Successful Building Project An Eloquent Commentary On The Local Labor Climate

Much is written and said about favorable or unfavorable "labor climates" in various communities of the U.S. This region is sometimes among those condemned, on the basis of reports not only out-of-date but distorted from the start.

To help paint a more accurate picture, it is worthy to note that Granite City Steel Co. has completed its mammoth three-year construction program with no basic disputes whatever and with jurisdictional issues taking up less than three-thousandths of 1% of the 4,030,000 man-hours.

Due to financial factors and the intricate timing involved in such a sweeping change in manufacturing processes and equipment, extensive delays could have created a serious problem.

Instead, 1300 building trades craftsmen holding membership in 15 different unions worked harmoniously to create a new basic oxygen furnace plant, computerized hot strip mill and continuous galvanizing line—an outstanding example that will be of great help in encouraging new business, industry and construction work.

Madison police rate a salute for the rescue of a seven-year-old boy, Timothy Bahr, from a smoke-filled upstairs bedroom in the Garesch housing project this week.

His parents and their other four children already had fled from the apartment, which was filled with dense, deadly fumes by the time he was rescued. Firefighters immediately entered the building and groped until he found the boy in bed, huddled against a wall and too frightened to seek safety by himself.

As shown by studies that the new Illinois school building code, smoke can take life even in fires that cause little property damage. Thanks to prompt and alert police work in a middle-of-the-night residential blaze, a young victim was saved.

Imports of Foreign-Produced Steel Imperil U. S. National Security
By JOHN P. ROCHE
President, American Iron and Steel Institute

U. S. national security faces dangerous consequences from the continuing rise in imports of foreign-produced steel and pig iron.

The institute supports the steel quota bill introduced in the Senate Oct. 16 by Sen. Hartke. The Institute's 70 domestic members are concerned that the quota of the nation's steel.

The U. S. cannot afford to rely for any important part of its needs on overseas sources of steel and pig iron, because there is the constant danger that those sources may be cut off at a critical moment.

Overseas producers have seized an increasingly large share of the U. S. market, causing this country to become the world's largest net importer of steel, aggravating its balance of payments deficit and adversely affecting employment opportunities.

Steel imports during 1966 made up about 11% of the steel consumed in the United States, against less than 2% 10 years earlier. So far this year, imports have taken an even larger share.

Because of large labor cost advantages per ton of output even after adjustment for differences in productivity, and because of the support and protection given by many foreign governments to their steel industries, the import problem cannot practically be met in the short run by producers in the United States, either by aligning their prices on those of imports in the U. S. market or by exporting steel at prices equal to or below prevailing world prices.

These courses of action would lead as they have in Western Europe, to a rapid deterioration of the price level in the U. S.; across the entire range of prices, from farm products to markets, since imports now include all the products used here.

But failure to deal with the import problem is now so low that alignment on them of domestic industry on a broad

Rink Structure Adds To This Area's Recreational-Cultural Diversity

Just as "all work and no play" is not advisable for an individual, a community needs to offer recreational and cultural programs as well as means of earning a livelihood. The Wilson Park building, now placed in use at 9 a.m. tomorrow will help in many ways to expand the already diverse facilities available in the Quad-Cities.

The initial and primary function will be to serve as an ice skating arena, and it is immensely able to do so. Its specially-hardened 115x205-foot concrete surface complete with refrigerant piping provides professional-size hockey and skating area big enough for 700 to 800 persons plus a protected area for spectators.

Adjacent are a 5000-square-foot concession and warming room and a paved outdoor patio featuring a bonfire pit.

Designed to blend with its wooded natural setting, the covered arena provides an open-air effect while guarding skaters, visitors and the ice from sun, wind, rain and snow every day of the skating season. Its unique roof, ranging in height from 15 to 60 feet, makes it one of the most attractive structures anywhere.

When not used for ice skating, the pavilion offers seating space for 3500 persons suitable for musical concerts, theatrical productions, sports exhibitions, square dances, scouting fairs, tumbling and gymnastics, flower shows, reunions, youth activities, outdoor banquets, special events, a picnic shelter, conventions, festivals and meetings of all kinds.

The $475,000 project, authorized by a 4-1 margin by voters in December 1965, reflects credit on the park board and staff and the citizens who aided in planning it and in securing public approval.

Self-supporting like the park swimming pool built in 1939, the rink and recreation center will pay "dividends" to local residents for many years through its spaciousness, adaptability and ultramodern equipment.

New Country Club Building Awaited
Breaking of ground for a new $600,000 clubhouse is good news for the many Sunset Hills Country Club members in the Quad-Cities.

The new clubhouse will be a fine addition to the club's property, which includes one of the most popular and challenging golf courses in this region. The September 1968 completion will be eagerly awaited.

Varied Role for University Campus
Establishment of Southern Illinois University's Southwestern campus was regarded as the most potentially beneficial to this area in many ways besides its fundamental function of providing higher education.

An example of its rapid progress toward filling a many faceted role was the highly successful Boy Scout camporee in which more than 750 campers and 1200 persons participated last weekend.

Don't look backward too much—you may head that way.

50 YEARS AGO

No new call for examination of prospective drafted men is expected before 1918. A new system of five classifications has been announced by Provost Marshall General Crowder.

The men will be arranged in the new classifications for the next 10 years. They will be taken into military service according to the number of dependents and the value of their service in civil life to the government.

The Granite City Merchants Association and the local store clubs' union have signed a new wage agreement calling for regular Saturday night opening.

Members of the Priscilla club will give a dance tonight at the Teddy Bear Social Club hall, 18th and State streets, for the benefit of the Tr-City chapter, American Red Cross.

The mysterious disappearance of a gold-mounted briar pipe given to Clerk John J. Mellon has been solved. It was found in the possession of one of the county jail prisoners assigned to work at the courthouse.

Professor Isabel Bevier, chairman of the Conservation Department of the Women's Committee of the Council for National Defense and home economics director for Illinois of the Department of Food Administration, is urging local women to purchase Liberty Bonds, register as members of the Food Administration, and pledge to spend wisely, save, plan meals and conserve food, including wheat, meat, fat and sugar.

Police Chief John Tappel is resigning effective Nov. 1 after 27 years on the Granite City department, including 10 years as chief.

Midwestern factory cities are only a few miles farther from enemy air bases in Norway than are New England and New York.

Greece Almost Became Another Vietnam, With North-South Split

By REV. SPIROS ZODHIATIS
President, American Mission to Greeks
(First of two reports)

Seeing is believing. I saw with my eyes. Conclusion: those who have heralded far and wide that Greece in recent months has become a country to be avoided, because its streets are full of soldiers and guns, have propagated falsehoods.

What is the truth about the military take-over of April 21? As president of American Mission to Greeks, which is the largest voluntary religious and philanthropic agency working on behalf of Greeks everywhere in the world, I had the moral obligation to investigate, observe and conclude.

During 1967, I visited Greece to investigate the military revolution and once again after the revolution.

Prior to the revolution, I observed a considerable breakdown of law and order. The parliament building had been a battleground for the exchange of fist blows and obscene language.

Members of parliament stood defiant of the laws they were supposed to uphold, and they could do so because of their parliamentary immunity.

They could incite the public into revolutionary outbreaks in the streets, in the factories and everywhere, with the police hardly capable of imposing order for the safety of law-abiding citizens.

The young people who organized into Communist-inspired groups were the particular threat to the police and the army. The newspapers gave the inflammatory signals.

The Greek Central Intelligence Service discovered that underneath all these civil disturbances, there was a secret effort among some Army officers to form a revolutionary plan for a leftist take-over of the armed forces.

If this had taken place, then Greece could have swung from within to the Communist orbit.

What Was Proposed
This leftist take-over of the military could have taken place without resistance if loyal officers could have been neutralized. But, if opposition could not be completely neutralized, the plan was to bring bloodshed and civil war.

There probably would have been a North Greece and a South Greece, just as we have a North Vietnam and a South Vietnam, with Northern Greece assisted by its Communist neighbors and the South assisted by the West.

This would have resulted in open conflict, just as in Vietnam. For the Western world could not possibly allow Greece to fall prey to Communism.

The officers in the conspiracy for a Communist take-over, called ASPIDA, were arrested and arraigned before a court martial.

It was discovered that these officers had behind them a leading member of the parliament; and this leading member was none other than the Minister of the Prime Minister, Andreas Papanandou.

Many of the Greek people could scarcely believe that a man of the stature of Andreas Papanandou would try to establish Communism in his native Greece, a country that had been a United Nations member and had taught economics in one of our leading universities. Nevertheless, he had indeed become a traitor to the Communist cause.

What added further to the subtle deception of the Greek people was that Papanandou had been brought to Greece in the first place by the rightist government of the ERE party under Prime Minister Constantinos Karamanlis, who ruled the country for eight years.

Karamanlis thought that an American-educated Greek in the field of economics would be able to contribute something to the economic uplift of his homeland. He apparently was completely unaware of the secret Communist leanings; and thus it came about that in 1963, under the Center Union Party headed by Andreas' father, 78-year-old George Papanandou, Andreas was given the most important economic position in the government: Minister of Co-ordination.

The influence of the son on the father was great. The otherwise democratic party began to move toward a left orientation. In cooperation with the leftist EDA party began. Inflation was the order of the day. The salaries of the judges and the members of parliament were doubled.

Shapiro Urges More Attendance At Twp. Meetings

Township governments in Illinois should publicize the work they do and the powers they have, instead of operating almost in private, Samuel H. Shapiro, lieutenant governor, said Tuesday.

Addressing the annual convention of Township Officials of Illinois in the Pere Marquette Hotel at Peoria, Shapiro said the movement to abolish township government, already under way, will gain momentum unless business is aired more openly.

"The 1433 townships in Illinois which carry on government in which the people themselves are the legislators, deciding for themselves what to do with their own tax money. Direct Decisions.

"The voters decide at a township meeting each year how much taxes to levy for township roads and bridges, salaries of town officers, care of the poor, compensation for assessors' deputies and other necessary expenses.

"We shouldn't have town meetings with only a dozen people there. It is a shame and a disgrace that township meetings seldom draw much of a crowd unless a scandal develops as it did in Stickney township.

"Some Illinois townships population exceeding 100,000. Yet, the residents pay little attention to their township government. Municipalities of equal size would be watched more closely and draw much more attention.

Scope of Townships
"Most people don't realize the townships handle relief of the poor, construction and maintenance of roads outside the municipalities and assessment of their property.

"A township government, if the people wish, can operate a hospital, a cemetery, a mental

Gets Year at Vandalia

Jessie Swope, 30, of 310 Slough road, Venice, was sentenced to one year at the Illinois State Penal Farm at Vandalia when arraigned before Magistrate Mateosian by Venice police Monday. Swope pleaded guilty to a charge of theft. He was arrested by Venice police last Saturday in the theft of a riding mower from a shed at the home of a neighbor.

health clinic. It is only in recent years that the General Assembly made it possible for a township to set up its own mental health program, but most people, and even some township officials, don't know it.

"There have been movements from time to time to abolish the township form of government. Constables and justices of the peace were abolished by the Judicial Amendment to the Constitution. There is growing sentiment for turning over the township roads, the assessment process and the general assistance programs to county governments.

"Out of Balance"
"In too many townships, the two-parasyst em of politics is out of balance so there is not much incentive to criticize the party in power or try to change the incumbent officers. While this may stimulate stability, it depresses popular interest.

"Township government today in Illinois is far different than in the New England colonies of the 17th Century. If it is to stay in business, it must communicate directly and frequently with the people it serves. Government must escape from a small room, or the people will do away with it."

Man Exposes Person

exposed himself on the lot at the Helpee Selfie laundromat, 1601 Pontoon road.

Bids for Juvenile Detention Home Called

The Madison county board of supervisors will receive sealed bids for the erection of a juvenile detention home at 3 p.m. Dec. 5 at the county courthouse, Edwardsville.

Separate proposals will be received, including general work, plumbing and drainage, heating, ventilating and air conditioning, and electrical work.

The detention home, including construction and furnishings, is expected to cost between $500,000 and $600,000 and will be located on the grounds of the county tuberculosis sanitarium. It will provide facilities for dependent, delinquent and truant children.

After a budget for the 1968 fiscal year and construction bids are approved, bonds are to be sold to raise $500,000 for the construction, William Webb, Madison county committee chairman, hopes construction can begin in December.

A detention home fund accumulated more than $100,000 from county sales taxes, and a special tax rate of 1.67 cents per $100 valuation was approved by voters last November for construction and maintenance of the home.

The fund contains about $235,000 with $230,000 invested at interest.

Plans and specifications may be obtained from county Auditor John L. Kraynak, Samuel E. Sanner, A.I.A., architect, Alton; F. W. Dodge Corp., St. Louis; Southern Illinois Builders Association, Belleville; and Scan-Pictorinc, St. Louis.

Church Sends In 31 Names For 'Yule Mail Call' List

Thirty-one young people who attended the Second Baptist Church in Granite City before entering military service comprise today's "Yule Mail Call" list.

The names and addresses were submitted by the church to the Press-Record's Christmas listing service of Quad-City servicemen and women, now on active duty with the Armed Forces at home and abroad.

All segments of the military are represented on the list, including Marines and Infantry men serving in the Vietnam and Europe, sailors aboard Navy vessels operating in the Far East and Atlantic waters and Air Force personnel stationed at such widely-separated points as Pease Air Force Base in Portsmouth, N.H., to Vandenberg AFB in California.

Churches, veterans' organizations and other service groups, together with relatives, friends and other individuals are invited to submit the names and addresses of military personnel for inclusion in "Yule Mail Call."

It is hoped the Christmas service will help to cheer local military personnel who are away from their homes and families during the coming holiday season.

Groups Selecting Names
Several local groups have reported selecting names from the lists to receive Yuletide packages, while other organizations and individuals are adding the servicemen and women to the holiday mailing lists to send greeting cards and letters.

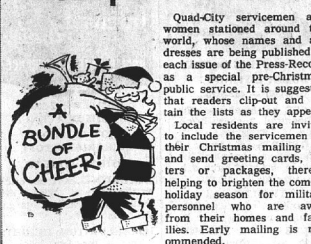

Publishing the "Yule Mail Call" lists has produced an added service to Armed Forces members, the newspaper recently learned. A number of local servicemen who receive the Press-Record overseas report using the lists to write friends with whom they've lost contact since entering the service.

Another Quad-City youth in Vietnam told his parents in a letter—"I was surprised to see how many fellows from home are over here. I hope to meet some of the guys whose units are located in the same area we are based."

To ensure accuracy, it is asked that names and addresses be sent in by letter or post card or the information

Press-Record's...

Yule Mail Call (Clip and Save)

Those submitting the serviceman's name, rank, serial number and correct address, are asked to identify themselves on the post card, letter or slip of paper in event verification of unit abbreviations is required.

Army Post Office (APO) numbers must be included when applicable. When area of overseas service is noted, the information will appear in parenthesis after the mailing address.

Christmas packages headed overseas to servicemen or civilians should be mailed no later than Saturday, Nov. 11, Granite City Postmaster Theodore Overbeck reminded local residents today.

If air mail is used, the deadline is extended to Dec. 11. The same dates are recommended by the post office officials for surface and air mail greeting cards and letters being sent overseas.

Although parcels and other mail destined for Vietnam shipped via surface mail rates, will be airlifted by military planes from west coast receiving areas, postal officials report the special holiday service will be on a "space-available" basis and urged relatives and friends of servicemen in that theatre to mail as early as possible.

Packages intended for Vietnam must be endorsed at the local post office with the letters "SAM," indicating they are to be forwarded from the west coast via airtail service, the postmaster explained.

Gift parcels, mailed on the "SAM" basis, may weigh no more than 16 pounds and measure not more than 60 inches in length and girth combined.

Postal authorities remind those preparing packages for servicemen overseas to wrap all parcels securely; address packages correctly and legibly, using the appropriate five-digit APO and FPO number as part of the address.

"Place a duplicate label which plainly shows both the addressee's address and the return address of the sender inside the package," Overbeck recommended.

A slip showing the list of contents must be enclosed in the parcel. Customs Declaration forms 2966 or 2976A, completed by the sender, are required on parcels to many destinations, the postal official said.

NEW CHANCEL at St. Peter United Church of Christ, 2101 Cleveland blvd., which is to be dedicated at the Sunday morning services along with the new organ for the church.

St. Peter Church Organ, Chancel Dedication Sunday

Dedication of the new organ and chancel at St. Peter United Church of Christ will be conducted during the 10:15 a.m. Sunday services. Rev. Dr. Robert Baumann, pastor will officiate at the service and Dr. Gerard Fritz will deliver the sermon. The church is at 2101 Cleveland blvd.

The new organ, a product of organ shops in America and Germany and the largest in Madison county, will be played by Robert Dial, recently appointed director of music at the church. The choir will sing Psalm 150 by Cesar Franck. Designer of the organ, Walter Brummer, a member of the congregation and proprietor of Midwest Organ Service here, said it was installed in two lots, one at each side of the chancel with two sections in the chancel, bracketed out from the walls and in full view of the congregation.

"The four divisions of the organ," he explained, "are the Great Organ that is exposed to view, the Sweet the Positiv and the Pedal Organs. The console is of three manuals, stops in the form of drawknobs, built out in Gothic design to match the character of the architecture of the church and the new chancel furniture.

"The console is prepared for a future Anaphonal organ which will be suspended at the rear of the church. It now has 46 ranks of pipes plus chimes, harp and zymbelstern. The latter is a small device with five bells which ring continuously when drawn as a stop. The name means 'tinkle-sta' and was favored in the Germanic lands for use at Christmastime from 1600 A.D. onward."

The new organ is designed in the classic form similar to the organs of the 17th and 18th centuries in Europe but has the stops needed for quiet playing and for the music of the 19th century. The mechanism was built in America and the pipes in Germany.

It was built in the shops of the designer here. The instrument is a gift to the congregation by the Brummer family in honor of Mrs. Louise Brummer, 90, who is the only remaining member of the original founders of the church.

Church members also will dedicate the new altar, lectern and pulpit in memory of Judge Westley Lueders by the Conrad Lueders family. The new pulpit will be dedicated in memory of Mrs. Katherine Wintermeyer, wife of Pastor Emeritus H. H. Wintermeyer. Funds from the Memorial Fund given by friends and relatives were used for this purpose.

The entire chancel area was renovated with a new Trinity window as the central feature. A completely new electrical system and new doors have been installed. Funds in excess of $17,000 were contributed by members for the chancel improvement.

Reformation will be Sermon Topics Sunday

The Protestant Reformation will be the theme of morning worship services at Niederrhein Memorial Methodist Church on Sunday, Oct. 31 will mark the 450th Anniversary of the Reformation. Rev. R. Paul Syms, minister, will preach on "Reviewing the Reformation" in both morning worship services, 8:30 and 10:40.

Anthems will be sung by the Youth Choir in the 8:30 service, and by the Chancel Choir in the 10:40 service. Both choirs will be directed by Warren G. Simpkins. The Children's Service, a special feature of the 10:40 worship service, will be delivered by the associate minister, Rev. Dean Blackburn.

Stolen Car Stripped And Burned at Venice

A stolen auto was found stripped and burning by Venice police at 2 a.m. Tuesday on Merchants Road at the levee. The tires, battery and other removable parts were missing. Police said the car, a 1966 two-door model, was stolen from Troy Vernon of Brooklyn. Venice firemen were called to extinguish the fire. The car was reported to be a total loss.

Secretary of State Paul Powell unveiled a painting of George Washington this week in the Springfield Capitol where it will hang for an extended period.

The unique portrait, on loan from Mr. and Mrs. August C. Meyer sr. of McCampbell, was painted around 1890 by Georg Sigurd Wetterhoff-Aspen, a Finnish artist, to inspire the Finns to revolt against the Russians who dominated Finland at the time.

Travelers Hear Report On European Journey

Travelers Abroad, three-year-old organization of Quad-Cityans who have traveled overseas, heard a report on Europe by Misses Eunice and Julianne Hatcher Monday evening in the Prather Junior high school library.

They reviewed highlights of a tour that included England, France, Germany, Switzerland and Italy. Refreshments were served to the group and prizes were awarded.

Miss Alice Purdes, president, will present photographic slides of Australia and New Zealand at the next meeting Nov. 27 at the Prather school.

The annual Christmas dinner was set for 6 p.m. Dec. 10 at the Rose Bowl restaurant, where Miss Beatrice Cooley will speak. A smorgasbord meal is planned.

Theft from Truck

New Time Extension In Old RR Tax Cases

Twelve Madison county railroads have been granted a 30-day extension for filing answers to a new appeal of the three-year-old railroad tax litigation involving $1.5 million taxes, it was reported Tuesday.

The appeal has been filed in U.S. Supreme Court by Burton C. Bernard, acting as a special assistant Madison county state's attorney in behalf of 14 school districts who would benefit from most of the tax money that has been tied up in railroad objections from as far back as 1959.

Railroad attorneys sought a 90-day delay, but the request was rejected by U.S. Supreme Court Clerk E. P. Cullinan, who said a filing period until Jan. 31 would cause undue delay in scheduling the cases. He granted an extension until Dec. 1 and said if all answers are filed by then the Supreme Court would rule whether to review the case on Jan. 15 "at the earliest."

Bernard's new appeal is based on argument that a constitutional question is involved that was not determined by the Illinois Supreme Court which reversed a Madison county circuit court decision in 1965 and subsequently refused a rehearing.

The lengthy case started in Madison county circuit court where Judge James O. Monroe ruled generally against the railroads, reducing the amount of tax refunds sought by the rail lines. The Illinois Supreme Court reversed Monroe, granting full refunds to the railroads.

Candy Machine Looted

A candy machine was broken open by six to eight persons at the Wash Bucket laundromat, 2600 Nameoki road, it was reported at 9:30 p.m. Monday. An unknown amount of candy and coins were taken.

In May 1966, the U.S. Supreme Court refused to hear Bernard's appeal on grounds it lacked jurisdiction.
